

Bachelor of General Studies

Degree Requirements

The Bachelor of General Studies will be awarded upon completion of 120 semester credit hours that meet the following requirements:

. Core Curriculum - 48 hours (see Lamar's General Catalog for more details).

• A grade of "C" or better must be earned in both ENGL 1301 and ENGL 1302.
Advanced Electives – 45 hours Advanced Electives are junior & senior level courses (indicated by course numbers of 3000-4000). A grade of "C" or better must be earned in AASC 3301, AASC 4301 and ENGL 3310 or 3326.

• AASC 3301 Lifelong Learning (3 hours)

• AASC 4301 Senior Seminar (3 hours)

• ENGL 3310 or 3326 (3 hours)

Lower-level Electives – 27 hours (Lower-level Electives are freshman & sophomore level courses (indicated by course numbers of 1000-2000).

Grade Point Average:

- A minimum grade point average of 2.0 in all advanced elective coursework.
- A minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.0.

Lamar University requires that each student also meet the criteria below:

- 30 hours of Lamar credit, 18 hours of which must be Advanced (3000-4000 level) credit.
- GPA at or above 2.000 based solely on work completed at Lamar.

No more than 66 hours earned at the Community college level can be applied to a bachelor's degree.